Ezra 3:10 NIV, When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests ... with trumpets, and the Levites... with cymbals, took their places to praise the LORD... 11 With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD... And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.'

Amazingly, the process was barely started but they were rejoicing and praising as if all was fully completed. They apparently were so confident of the conclusion, they needed no further evidence! ...And saw no need to delay their praise until their victory actually manifested.'

12 But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.13 No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.'

Expectation, anticipation and hope. So often our praise is the first evidence of our FAITH! Ezra 3 beautifully illustrates a demonstrated confidence that 'He who began this good work will doubtlessly complete it!'

Faith sees the end ... at the beginning (confidently envisioning the victory). Praise and thanksgiving are the natural evidence of that faith and trust. Selah!
