Jeremiah 20:9 AMP, If I say, I will not make mention of [the Lord] or speak any more in His name, in my mind and heart it is as if there were a burning fire shut up in my bones. And I am weary of enduring and holding it in; I cannot [contain it any longer].

20:9 MSG But if I say, "Forget it! No more GOD- Messages from me!" The words are fire in my belly, a burning in my bones. I'm worn out trying to hold it in. I can't do it any longer!

Karyn and I were enjoying the evening light of a full- moon several nights ago —watching the moonlight filter beautifully through the trees and the Florida foliage. These thoughts began to stir in my heart.

There really is no such thing as “moonlight”, is there? Whatever the time of day or night, it is indeed sunlight that we are enjoying—whether directly or reflected. Sunlight, not moonlight. Theoretically then, if I bask beneath the full-moon long enough, shouldn't I improve my tan? Obviously, no more than a news-video of a fire can burn you, regardless of how close to your TV you set. Why? There is no transfer of heat. It is just an echo.

God has not called you or me to be an echo. There are no spiritual moonburns. Whatever your level of ministry, whether before thousands or simply to your neighbor, nothing can be ignited in their heart from an echo in yours. There must be a heat transfer. Merely echoing the fire of another is not sufficient. There is no “immaculate combustion”. Each of us was designed by God to house a uniquely fashioned and passionately fueled blaze—like a fire in our bones that cannot be contained. (An original, not an echo.) Selah!
