Fearful of the power of the Ark of the Covenant (after witnessing the death of Uzzah for casually considering it), King David changed his plans to transport the Ark back to Jerusalem and rather elected to store it on the spot. Apparently the closest possibility was the home of a Gittite named Obed-edom. Gittites were said to be men of Gath, One of the five chief cities of the Philistines.'

So, what's the big deal? ...Obed-edom wasn't anyone special! He wasn't a great spiritual leader, a seminary graduate or anything... he was just available. Yet, Gods abundant blessing rested on his entire household because he willingly welcomed Gods presence into his home. An unlikely beneficiary, he became so blessed that news of its magnitude got back to the King prompting him to immediately fetch the Ark.'

2Sam.6:12 And it was told King David, The Lord has blessed the house of
