Spiritually maturing in life is all about resolving the natural conflict between the soul (the mind, the will and the emotions) and the re-born spirit.'

4 KJV ...I am so troubled that I cannot speak... 8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore? 9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah. 10 MSG "Just my luck," I said. "The High God goes out of business just the moment I need him."

To this point, we can all see ourselves within this same struggle. Between vss.10 and 11 the psalmist makes a determined choice and a complete focus change.'

11 AMP I will [earnestly] recall the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will [earnestly] remember the wonders [You performed for our fathers] of old. 12 I will meditate also upon all Your works and consider all Your [mighty] deeds. 13

Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary [in holiness, away from sin and guilt].
Who is a great God like our God?

The definitive statement from the psalmist's heart, "Father, your way is in the Secret Place!" Re-focusing the distressed and distracted "soul" is always a choice—your choice; my choice.
