‘Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus ... Just to take Him at His Word ... Just to stand upon His promise ... Just to know, ‘thus saith the Lord.’

As the writer of this old hymn indicates, truly trusting the Lord requires knowing His Word. To take Him at His Word, to hold Him to His Word, to place a good-faith-expectation upon Him requires first knowing what He has said and committed to.

Presumptions don’t count. Genuine trust cannot come from an assumption. True faith isn’t birthed from speculation or theory. John 8:32 says, “And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” It is indeed the truth you know which frees you, not simply the truth you've heard about. For most, bible promise is more akin to rumor than to core belief and foundational conviction.

For God’s Word to become the “lamp unto my feet, and light unto my path,” that Ps.119:105 speaks of, I must actively connect with it—regularly, consistently.
