I trust the holidays brought you all the joy you'd hoped for and exceeded all expectations. If you're at all like Karyn and I, the holiday season, as much as we enjoy it, tends to leave us tired-to-the-bone.

Additionally, as with many others, your greatest 2006 highlight may have simply been survival rather than triumph. Often we enter January with little strength in reserve for the launch and conquest of a new year. If you qualify for any of the above, does God ever have a plan for you!!!

Isa. 40:29 (AMP) He gives power to the faint and weary, and to him who has no might He increases strength [causing it to multiply and making it to abound].

Who exactly is this marvelous promise being offered to? (Notice that it is actually a very specific and select group.)

Isa 40:31 (AMP) But those who wait for the Lord [who expect, look for, and hope in Him] {Worshippers!} shall change and renew their strength and power; they shall lift their wings and mount up [close to God] as eagles [mount up to the sun]; they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint or become tired.

Another wonderful promise reserved exclusively for the worshiper! Selah.
