Acts 17:22 KJV Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitations and settlements; 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being;

Responding to an undefined drive in their hearts, the Athenians were compelled to honor a god they did not know. Paul states, Let me introduce you! God doesn't dwell in stone structures. He is not worshiped with the actions or the product of men's hands...

He has made all men on the face of the earth of one blood and has appointed their times and the bounds of their habitations and settlements that each should seek the Lord and if they search after Him, they find Him—though He's never far from any of us! For in Him we live!
