I have come to the realization that our Father would rather you do the wrong thing, but with the right heart, than to do the right thing with the wrong heart.

He is not nearly as concerned about end result or bottom line statistics as he is the heart-motive that guides and compels you or me toward that outcome.

At God's command, the prophet Samuel searched through Jesse's camp and family for Israel's next king. However, his flawed impression of what God was looking for required a major correction. 1Sam.16:7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

Mt.15:7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, 8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. 9 But in vain they do worship me.

The motivation and focus of our hearts--that is what God is watching. Indeed,
