Rm.3:23 KJV For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

It might come as a surprise to many but God has not compiled an extensive list of acts, deeds, motives and thoughts that He designates "sin." His list is actually remarkably short. To the horizontal thinking mind, sin is always equated with our lengthy list of moral and ethical transgressions but to God it is entirely different. To the horizontal and religious mentality, this makes no sense but to the vertically inclined, it immediately becomes a "worship" matter.

Rm.3 says, "For all have sinned..." The Apostle Paul, inspired by the Holy Spirit, immediately then defines God's standard or measurement for sin. ...Not a list, not an event. All have sinned by falling short of the Glory.

Rm.3:23 is not just a "Romans road" message for those lost and without God. This is first a challenge for the church. God considers settling for anything less than His presence and His glory to be sin!

Apparently being a worshiper is not optional! Selah.
