Ps.33:16 KJV No king is saved by the multitude of an army; A mighty man is not delivered by great strength. 17 A horse is a vain hope for safety; Neither shall it deliver any by its great strength. 18 AMP Behold, the Lord's eye is upon those who fear Him [who revere and worship Him with awe], who wait for Him and hope in His mercy and loving-kindness.

Just as "fearing Him" is actually talking about worship, so "waiting" for Him is equally worshiper-talk. God's victory and deliverance, His best and greatest, is not given to the strongest or the best prepared but is reserved for a very select group (for whom He is constantly and urgently searching): worshippers.

19 To deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine. 20 Our soul waits for the LORD; He is our help and our shield. 21 For our heart shall rejoice in Him, Because we have trusted in His holy name. 22 Let Your mercy, O LORD, be upon us, Just as we hope in You.

Interestingly, the original Hebrew for "hope" in vs.22 is actually "to wait"-to tarry patiently, trustingly (worshiper-talk).

Note carefully the amazing challenge and commitment of vs.22 AMP, Let Your mercy and loving-kindness, O Lord, be upon us, in proportion to our
