There is a difference between God's omnipresence and His Manifest Presence. Certainly God is present everywhere at once to an extent -omni-present. There is however a higher degree of His presence, a higher concentration that can occur. So many Christians live their lives with recognition of God's omnipresence alone, without every truly experiencing the awe of His profound, manifest presence-which is where life truly begins!

There is indeed a difference. There is a place, a point of contact between God's glorious omnipotence and our human existence-a point where majesty touches humanity and where heaven brushes earth. That touch can transform everything.

Acts 3 is not referring generally to the omnipresence of God when it declares "the times of refreshing shall come from the Presence of the Lord". That guarantee is related rather to that point where His presence wonderfully manifests in a far more tangible encounter. Similarly, Psa. 31:19,20 AMP proclaims, "Oh, how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear, revere, and worship You... 20 In the secret place of Your presence You hide them... You keep them secretly in Your pavilion."

There is a place, a sanctuary deep within His presence, well worth exchanging
