Dan.11:32b ...The people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. NKJV ...The people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.

Know God, be strong, do exploits! Amen. We so tend to get this totally confused! We invariably try to begin the process with the final stage, to jump right into the achievement-with our grand plans of doing exploits. After our ineffective attempts, we typically then discover that being strong is a required part of this equation.

Many than expend their entire lives endeavoring to be strong in order to do exploits (which precisely illustrates religion's perspective and motivation). God, however, never intended those responsibilities to rest on our shoulders. He requires of you and me one essential first step. The people who know their God intimately (The original Hebrew uses a term of intimate relationship), they shall inevitably become strong. "Exploits" (by God's standards) are the unavoidable result of this process!

You see, you and I are not held accountable to somehow manufacture great triumphs in God's behalf. He has designed them to become the natural and expected evidence in the life of a true worshiper- one who pursues and

Don't get sidetracked nervously pursuing what should be inevitable. First-things-first. The true worshipers SHALL BE STRONG ... which SHALL Produce EXPLOITS! Selah.
