

SELAH-GRAM

Sey'-law-gram
worshippers.net - webletter

Greetings!

Thanks for opening this weeks SelahGram. Karyn and I pray it inspires a stillness in your heart.

Selah--please pause and ponder.

Speechless

Somewhere along the line I discovered that encountering God's presence face to face changes and impacts everything. I've been so privileged from time to time to visit some exotic places-in the Lord. The deepest encounters I've been blessed to have with the Lord have always tended to leave me speechless, breathless.

I certainly love the excited times of high praise and rejoicing in the Lord with all my heart and to the top of my lungs. The Psalms are filled with such joyous accounts but I've found equally true that He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters where He restores my soul. (Psa 23:2,3 NKJV) Psalm 46:10 declares, Be still, and know that I am God. There is a knowing that is only found in that stillness.

I've discovered that the deeper into Father's the presence I go, the more humbled and quiet I become. It seems that the greater the awe, the less I find to say-and even then, only a heavenly language seems to suffice. I cherish those moments above all else in life.

Such moments change everything. They silence every outside voice, utterly quiet my mind and spirit and even change me metabolically... my eyes begin endlessly draining fluids for no apparent reason. Everything is instantly re-prioritized-no list of needs, interests or even noble causes seems worth mentioning. Nothing else is as important as utterly immersing in that brief and glorious connection in time. Speech-less! Selah.

June 22, 2007

Supporting Thoughts

Job 37:14 declares,
Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

Similarly the psalmist in Ps.4:4 KJV captures our discussion within these words, Stand in awe... and be still. Selah.
Amen!

Worshippers, as James states, pray ye one for another that we may be healed and restored. Remember, the devil especially targets those who lead others toward

Pursuing HIS Presence,

Jim

worshippers.net

Visit our web site for more info
on current Jim Burgdorf Ministries activities.

worship.

Jim Burgdorf
Ministries PO Box
93463 Southlake, TX
76092

Selahgrams
Quick-link

Recent Selahgrams