Greetings!

Thanks for clicking this week. Karyn and I pray these thoughts compel you toward a deeper pursuit of Father.

Selah--please pause and ponder.

How to Buy God's Blessings!

Consider this glimpse from Isa. 55 of God's marvelous willingness to bless His children.

Isa.55:1 ...Come ye to the waters and he that hath no money, come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. 2 ...Eat... let your soul delight itself in fatness. [increase] 3

...Your soul shall live and I will make an everlasting covenant with you.

'Come unto me,' He says, 'your soul will revive and I will make an everlasting covenant,' Although the text says "without price", there is however a purchase that must take place. God requires an all important exchange.

No, God's blessing cannot be purchased with money. There is, however, an exchange He will accept and indeed requires. The currency of that exchange is worship. Vs1 Everyone who thirsts. 2 Hearken diligently unto me, and eat. 3 Incline thine ear and come unto me. 6 Seek ye (and require [AMP]) the Lord.

God is very seeker-friendly! (Diligent, passionate seekers)

Pursuing HIS Presence,

Jim

Supporting Thoughts

Isa.55:1 Ho, everyone that thirsteth, come ye to the waters and he that hath no money, come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 ... Hearken dilligently unto me, and eat ... let your soul delight itself in fatness. [increase]

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me; hear, and your soul shall live and I will make an everlasting covenant with you.

Seeker sensitive?
Absolutely! God is always the rewarder of those who diligently, passionately seek Him. Selah.
