Greetings!

Thanks for clicking this weeks SelahGram. Karyn and I pray it causes you to pause and ponder. Selah.

"As It Is In Heaven"

What does "...as it is in heaven" mean?

Mt.6:9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. 10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Could Jesus actually have meant what he was saying? Did He really mean to introduce "The Lord's Prayer" with this declaration? Does He actually mean for us to pray this, desire this and expect this result? Should my life actually bear the appearance of heaven on earth? Should there truly be a perfect illustration of heaven in my life and lifestyle?

More than anything else, the fingerprint of heaven is worship...fervent, unrestrained worship. The hallmark, the lifestyle, the atmosphere of heaven is passionate, unreserved worship.

The greatest example of God's will being done within me "as it is in heaven" is its reflection in my worship! Selah.

Supporting Thoughts

It's so often said these days, "worship is a private matter..." I've heard it from countless politicians and I've seen it implied by masses of church-goers who (apparently) choose to exhibit theirs in secret...

This argument won't fly in heaven!

(We discuss this theme extensively in "The Revelation, the Ultimate Worship Encounter.")
