Greetings!

Thanks for clicking this weeks SelahGram. Karyn and I pray it causes you to pause and ponder: Selah.

Act 16:25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

They praised until the glory exploded and shook the place! ...An amazing story of deliverance, evangelism, healing, restoration, victory... all simply the result of the consuming presence of God's glory. It's essential to recognize: there was no one else present-no one else to urge them on and stir their praise. There was no musical assistance; there was no "worship leader", no praise team or choir, no congregation to help create momentum, not even a CD player! Plus, the circumstances were about as bad as it gets.

Motivated only by the desire within their own hearts, two unassisted but passionately-pursuing worshippers caused Heaven to erupt within their jail cell that night.

Additionally...

Rarely is the crisis that attacks you accompanied by a worship leader and a company of praiser's to help you put on your garment of praise, to help you praise your way to worship and worship through the crisis. When Paul & Silas needed a genuine encounter more than anything, God responded gloriously when they individually reached deep within and whole-heartedly worshiped-no
