Greetings!

Thanks for clicking this weeks SelahGram. Karyn and I pray it causes you to pause and ponder: Selah.

"Perfecting Holiness"

2Cor.7:1 *Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

As we have discussed before (and the subject of the future book, "The Secret Of The Lord") "the fear of God" is a discussion about true awe-filled worship.

2Co 7:1 AMP *THEREFORE, SINCE these [great] promises are ours, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that contaminates and defiles body and spirit, and bring [our] consecration to completeness in the [reverential] fear of God.

7:1 NLT *Because we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that can defile our body or spirit. 7:1 MSG ...let's make a clean break with everything that defiles or distracts us, both within and without. Let's make our entire lives fit and holy temples for the worship of God.

As if the promises previously discussed by Paul in Ch.6:16-18 (I will receive you. and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty) are contingent on our worship! ...As if their fulfillment requires the cleansing qualities found only in true worshipSelah. \o/

For The Record...

I am tremendously blessed that my father, Dan Burgdorf, at 91, remains a daily connection and influence in my life and spiritual walk. While we've just come through some medical challenges over the past 48 hrs, this weekend is especially for you, Dad. Happy Father's Day. I'm also greatly privileged to be a father myself. Our Melissa and Jessica are the pride of my life. Watching their beauty, their caring natures, their diligence and ambition, coupled with a purpose that is bigger than they yet fully know, is a constant source of joy to me. Though June contains both their birthday's, the greatest honor this month is mine... hearing them say "Dad"!
