Don't Look Down!

Psa 18:30 As for God, his way is perfect: 32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. 33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. 34 He teacheth my hands to war... 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

Ever find yourself seemingly clinging to the side of the cliff? ...Maybe feeling threatened by your circumstances and your precarious perch above them. when I happened to notice something in Ps.18, "As for God, His way is perfect." V.32 then further indicates that God makes my way perfect. How? V.33 then describes: He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

Interesting thing about those high places, looking at your surroundings can either be awesome or fearsome! Looking at the looming circumstances too much can be fatal. Don't look down! Don't "spectate" until you've reached the goal.

The guarantee is this: before we get to the high places, God equips us, v.33 says, with hind's feet (with the confident steps of a mountain goat). Understanding this removes the fear of the heights. Later vss indicate the high places are where He

A QUIET PLACE Now Available!

For every worshiper, there must be
seasons of quiet.

There are depths in the Lord that can only be reached in a fervent stillness. It often seems God's greatest treasures are conveyed in a still, small voice. This project is a tool to help you find this place.

A Quiet Place -- is a gently flowing progression of intimate moments ... songs and interludes of passion and pursuit. More than a musical experience, it teaches our hands to war, gives a shield of deliverance, upholds us and enlarges our steps that our feet will not slip.

Furthermore, here is where we pursue, overtake and consume the enemy.

From one perspective, potential destruction. But why fearfully look down? You're equipped with hinds' feet! Selah
