Interpretations

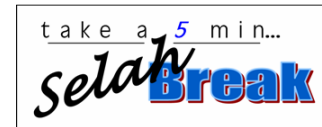

Have you noticed how many seemingly conflicting religious voices there are? Our satellite TV connection offers us at least 13 dedicated religious channels. Channel surfing, I regularly hear directly contradictory discussions presented on adjacent channels. I've heard radio broadcasts that completely opposed positions taken by the previous broadcaster. All of which prompts more questions than answers. How confusing this must be to someone depending on these religious voices as their primary source of guidance.

God's Word offers a fail-safe solution for the inevitable confusion of the spectrum of religious voices.

1Jn 2:27 MSG But they're no match for what is embedded deeply within you--Christ's anointing, no less! You don't need any of their so-called teaching. Christ's anointing teaches you the truth on everything you need to know about yourself and him, uncontaminated by a single lie. Live deeply in what you were taught. 28 And now, children, stay with Christ. Live deeply in Christ.

AMP translation adds, "you must abide in (live in, never depart from) Him [being rooted in Him, knit to Him], just as [His anointing] has taught you [to do]." ...Worshiper-talk. God's fail-safe solution for clarity amidst mixed signals? ...A vibrant vertical relationship. In truth, even the best teaching Coming Soon...

Coming soon to worshippers.net and linked through your SelahGram is a new media outreach we are launching.

We are presently producing the first of a collection of 5 minute audio clips, SelahBreaks. These audio briefs are essentially audio SelahGrams. Each is a narrated, expanded SelahGram with a well produced music background. Though initially linked through and instruction will be ineffectual if ever elevated to the role of your primary voice of training. God's plan: abide in Him, live deeply in Him, rooted and knit to Him, depending wholly on the vertical connection, not just the horizontal interpretation. Selah.
