With All Your Heart & Strength

Reflecting on a couple decades of worship leading and a joyous worship experience I recently shared, this conclusion surfaced in my heart. Personally, I would rather see 110% pursuit from just one worshiper than 75% from thousands. I know this conviction is not uniquely mine. I'm convinced it precisely reflects God's preference. Note Jesus' pointed words of Mt. 22 (also quoted in Mk.11).

Mat 22:36-38 Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment.

I love how Mark documents Jesus' words. Mar 12:30 NLT "And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength."

This has nothing to do with volume and even less to do with working up a good lather. Plus, different people emote in widely different ways. ...BUT, scripture does require, all your heart, mind & strength. Note the Message Translation. Mar 12:29,30 MSG Jesus said, "The first in importance is, 'Listen, Israel: ... love the Lord God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence and energy.'"

Have you witnessed that? Have you been that person? How long has it been? Or, have you ever been there? Has your hunger and thirst ever reached that point? ...That all-consuming overflow point where you get completely lost within the Presence. Once you've been there, you're ruined for anything less. Yes, I love seeing even one person sell out completely in their pursuit and worship but, in truth, I'd rather be that person. Selah.
