The PLACE of Provision

I love finding surprise references to the secret place as I study God's Word.

Today, we recognize "Jehovah Jireh" as one of the descriptive names of God-one of the attributes of His character: "my provider." However, in the only occurrence of the term in the Bible,

Abraham was actually not speaking about God, he was naming a place.

Gen.22:14, "And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh." Most translations since KJV have translated the Hebrew, "the Lord will provide." AMP continues, "It is said to this day, 'on the mountain of the Lord {in that place} it will be provided." What does "that place" represent?

Abraham and his son had just taken the journey of their lives to Mt.Moriah. As Abraham stated 9 vss prior, "I and the lad will go yonder and worship." Committed to fully carrying out God's instructions, he proceeded to offer up his son until his effort was arrested by the angel of the Lord who provided a substitutionary ram. In the following vss God overwhelmingly responds (in a global way) to Abraham's fervency and commitment of heart.

What is "that place" so symbolic of? It is the place of all-out, all-consumed encounter: worship. We could say it this way, "In that place of all-out encounter, is God's provision!" The

If you haven't checked them out yet, each SelahBreak (simply a "musical SelahGram") offers a challenging 4-5 minute discussion on a worship related topic. revelation of "Jehovah Jireh" is incomplete if it doesn't include fervent, determined, 100% worship. I believe we not only have a provider, but any worshiper has access to the place of provision! Selah.
