Things To Do Today...

If you're at all like me, the daily list is vital! This morning as I examined, prioritized and expanded today's extensive listing of time demands, I recognized a glaring oversight.

Where is worship on your list of things to do today?

While I don't include showering and brushing my teeth on my daily check-list, my responsibility to genuinely worship is much more than just a routine or duty. It is a vital part of this day's clarity, peace, favor & success ... root-2-fruit!

Psa 63:1 says, O God, You are my God; Early will I seek You; My soul thirsts for You; My flesh longs for You In a dry and thirsty land Where there is no water. (It's as if this were the main priority on David's daily list.)

Similarly, Mat 6:33 ASV says, But seek ye first His kingdom, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Pro 8:34 MSG adds, Blessed the man, blessed the woman, who listens to me, awake and ready for me each morning, alert and responsive...

Remember, "seek" is an 'encounter' term... Genuine, daily, personal, intimate worship. |o/

In Conclusion:

What if my life depended on a true daily encounter? ...Or my success? How would that affect my list? What if He really is the rewarder of those (and exclusively those) who diligently, passionately seek Him? ...And what if loving Him with all your strength, mind and heart actually is today's first command? Selah.
